30th March – 1st April (Closing date – 26th February 2012)

Badges - Climber, MaA Archery, MaA Rifles, Camp Cook, Forester, Emergency Aid Stage 3, Orienteer, Craft, Activity Plus, Mechanics

Aims

To provide a weekend of fun activities leading to the presentation of activity badges or certificates of achievement. Meet, work and camp with Scouts and Adults from other Troops, Districts and Counties.

Tradition

An established weekend where Leaders and Scouts come together and are able to concentrate on Activity Badges. Scouts and Leaders will be positively encouraged to mix and work with people from other Groups and Districts.

We Provide

All organisation and programmes over the weekend.

All meals – Saturday breakfast to Sunday breakfast inclusive.

Camp Fire, Wide Game, etc. on our 50-acre site.

You Provide

- Yourself, Scouts, Camp Leaders, Tents and Personal Kit.
- At least two adults to help with the badge camp.
- A willingness to take part, give it a try, help and have fun.
- Three choices of Badge for each Scout taking part.
- Appropriate permissions (camping, shooting, health, etc.)

Cost

£22 per person for the camp (plus your transport and equipment costs)

Leaders helping at Badge Camp do not pay
